ROUTINES

Detention Procedures

If you arrive late to school, you will have a break time detention on that day. The detention will be held at 10:50am in the Reflection Room, and will last for 15 minutes.

Failure to attend this detention will result in an up-scaled detention the following Monday after school, which will last 40 minutes. Again, failure to attend this will result in an hour SLT detention on Friday.

Please ensure you all have access to ClassCharts, so you are able to manage your detentions. Ms Wood-Cain will email you a reminder prior to the detention to ensure you attend.

SUPER-CURRICULAR – LECTURES AND OPEN DAYS

CALLING ALL RS STUDENTS - Harrow School Talk with Peter Singer AC

On Wednesday 29th April, Harrow School are hosting a lecture with Peter Singer AC. Peter Albert David Singer AC is an Australian moral philosopher. He is the Ira W. DeCamp Professor of Bioethics at Princeton University, and a Laureate Professor at the Centre for Applied Philosophy and Public Ethics at the University of Melbourne.

This will be an invaluable experience, and we recommend you attend. If you wish to book, please see Ms. Phillips

Subject Masterclasses at Cambridge University

Subject Masterclasses are subject-specific events that offer academically able students in Year 12 (or equivalent) the chance to experience typical undergraduate teaching at the University of Cambridge, and to get a flavour of what it's like to be a student here. The Masterclasses cover a range of subjects and provide students with an opportunity to explore topics of interest beyond what's covered within the school curriculum.

Each Masterclass includes:

- two taster lectures delivered by leading academic staff from the University
- the opportunity to discuss and ask questions
- an introduction to the Cambridge admissions process
- the opportunity to hear about life as a Cambridge student from current undergraduates

Booking is essential and is open to individuals at a cost of £20 (to cover event costs). Funded places are available for anyone eligible for Free School Meals and for children in care.

London School of Economics (LSE) Festival: Shape the World

The LSE Festival: Shape the World will take place from Monday 2 to Saturday 7 March 2020 and will be exploring how social sciences can make the world a better place. The Festival will bring together global leaders, innovators and change makers to investigate how we can learn lessons from the past, tackle the challenges of today and shape the future. All events are free to attend and open to all. Please see below a full programme of events.

All events are free and open to all. Book now at lse.ac.uk/festival

SUPER-CURRICULAR – FURTHER YOUR LEARNING

Henley Business School – Pathways to Property

Pathways to Property aims to widen access to the real estate profession by raising awareness of and aspirations about the vast range of careers available within the industry.

Led by the Reading Real Estate Foundation (RREF) at Henley Business School, University of Reading, the initiative is generously supported by leading real estate firms and a number of charitable trusts and individuals. Through a wide range of fully-funded activities such as an annual Summer School, open online course and work experience opportunities, we bring together students, teachers and the industry to support the next generation of property professionals.

Pathways to property summer school will be held from the 20th to the 23rd of July. The programme is free to attend, all food, accommodation and travel costs are included!

Applications are now open via: henley.ac.uk/alumni/support-henley/pathways-to-property
