Dear Parent/Carer

Support for GCSE History

I am writing to inform you about the History resources, intervention and support that is in place for your child studying GCSE History.

All pupils have access to a classroom on Google where they can find reminders of upcoming deadlines, homework guidance and further resources to support their study of History GCSE. If they are not already members, the codes are as follows:

Mrs Field's class: v7hfgn

Ms Sedgwick's class: yutzep

In addition to this, a support session will be running on Mondays from 3:30-4:30pm in U10. These sessions will involve recapping content, focused instruction on exam technique, and opportunities for practice questions. Now that pupils have nearly completed the first Unit of the GCSE, Medicine in Britain c1250-present, these sessions will begin by recapping the content covered in their History lessons this Term and will prove invaluable for pupils wishing to begin their revision. The first session will be on Monday 20th January.

Please encourage your child to engage with the resources they have been given and to attend the extra sessions. This will assist them towards achieving their expected level of progress in History.

If you have questions about your child's study of History GCSE, then please contact me via my school email at efield8.302@smsj.london.

Yours sincerely,

Ms E. Field
Head of Humanities
